Accomplishments

Faculty

Jung Ha-Brookshire, Textile & Apparel Management, was awarded a Fulbright Award from the United States Department of State and the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. The Fulbright Scholar Program is the flagship international educational exchange program sponsored by the U.S. government and is designed to increase mutual understanding between the U.S. and people of other countries. During Fall 2015, Ha-Brookshire will serve a visiting scholar to Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

Antoinette Landor, Human Development & Family Science, was honored in March by Mizzou’s Black Women’s Initiative for her work on campus and in the Columbia area. She was also an invited speaker for an event held at MU entitled: SOUL: Color Complex. The event shed light on the biases, perceptions, and controversies of being a woman of color including colorism and racism.

Staff

Lori Bemis, Administrative Assistant in the HES Fiscal Office, was selected as the April 2015 Service Champion by MU Staff Advisory Council. The award recognizes outstanding staff members who embody the university’s core values of respect, responsibility, discovery, and excellence. Bemis was recognized for going above and beyond her job responsibilities, but also for her unwavering positive attitude.

Heather Hoffman, Business Support Specialist II in HES Research and Graduate Studies, was selected for the Staff Development Award by MU Staff Advisory Council. The award program is intended to promote the professional and personal development of employees through conferences, workshops, and other short-term experiences. Funding was provided for Hoffman to attend the 2015 Women in Higher Education Leadership Summit (WHELS) in San Diego, CA in August.

Service anniversary milestones include
5-years, Ben Sauro, HES Student Services;
10-years, Gary Raines, School of Social Work
15-years, Laura Frankin, Nutrition and Exercise Physiology and Amy Sanders, HES External Relations
20-years, Kathleen Claxton Rogers, School of Social Work
30-years, Deborah Garrett, Nutrition and Exercise Physiology.

Students

Emily Cissell and Jerica Leiby, Textile and Apparel Management seniors, received scholarships from the Mizzou Store to attend the 2015 Campus Market Expo (Expo) in Atlanta, Georgia. CAMEX is the largest collegiate trade show in the country. Both students were given an opportunity to work with the Mizzou Store buying group and experience the tradeshow process first-hand.

Kearsten Peoples, Human Development and Family Science senior, won the 2015 NCAA Indoor Track and Field title in weight throw. Her best throw this year ranks 7th in NCAA history for any meet. She has received All-American Honors for a total of 8 times in both indoor and outdoor track and field.

Victoria Yu, Human Development and Family Science senior, was tapped for membership into Omicron Delta Kappa (ODK) on Tap Day. Founded in 1914, ODK is a national leadership society that recognizes individuals who consistently achieve high standards of excellence and help to sustain strong leadership communities.
