Nothing for the next week

It's published and open...but they still can't see it?

- If students have previously created a custom Dashboard, they need to access Courses > All Courses > and “favorite” their Fall 2018 courses by clicking the star.

Can I check and make sure everything is working?

- Canvas offers a tool called the “Link Validator”.
- This validator checks internal and external links.
- Examples:
 - A document was deleted from the Files, but is still linked in the course.
 - A YouTube video you used last semester has been removed and no longer works.
